Synopsis:

In the heart of wartime Britain, Detective Jim Ashworth finds himself embroiled in a web of secrets and forbidden love that could shatter the nation's resolve. When a young woman is found murdered in a bombed-out church, Ashworth is called in to investigate. As he delves deeper into the case, he uncovers a clandestine network of Nazi spies operating under the guise of respectable citizens.

Alongside his investigation, Ashworth becomes entangled in a forbidden romance with Sarah, a woman hiding a dangerous secret. As the lines between loyalty and love blur, Ashworth must confront the treachery that lurks within his own ranks and find a way to protect the woman he loves while preserving the safety of his country.
