The Making of a Monster

Born Brian Hugh Warner in Canton, Ohio, Manson's childhood was marked by abuse and neglect. Seeking solace in music and art, he developed a morbid fascination with the macabre. Baddeley traces Manson's musical journey, from his early industrial roots to his commercial breakthrough with albums like Antichrist Superstar and Mechanical Animals. Along the way, he explores the controversies that have dogged Manson's career, including allegations of drug abuse, violence, and Satanism.
