The Journey Unfolds

With their solar-powered bicycles as their trusty companions, Abhishek and Anurag set off from the southern tip of India, Kanyakumari, on December 10, 2020. They bravely faced the elements, navigating through heatwaves, pouring rain, and rough roads. Their journey took them through 12 states and 60 cities, showcasing India's rich history, vibrant culture, and diverse landscapes.

Challenges and Triumphs

Throughout their epic journey, Abhishek and Anurag encountered numerous obstacles. They faced mechanical difficulties, struggled with injuries, and endured the physical and mental strains of long-distance cycling. Yet, they remained determined, drawing strength from the warm hospitality of the locals they met along the way.

Their triumphs were equally remarkable. They successfully promoted solar energy in schools, villages, and cities, educating thousands of people about its benefits. They also connected with cycling enthusiasts, inspiring them to push their own limits.
