

Family Portrait of Poems: Capture the Essence of Family Bonds

Self-portrait

*She was not a slender woman,
but her skin was milk
mixed in with strawberry jam & between her legs the word purple was born
& her hair was the color of wheat & yellow butter.*

Her eyes were dark as the North Atlantic sea.

*She learned the untranslatable words of dawn.
She studied her own fear & wrote its verses.
She used the hole in her heart to play wind-music.
She built her book-houses over her empty cellar.*

*She nursed on the muse at first,
then became her own mother.*

Erica Jong
