Synopsis

In a world weary from endless video calls, 'Goodnight Zoom' emerges as a much-needed escape. This hilarious parody book captures the absurd and endearing moments of our pandemic Zoom encounters.

From the pajama-clad toddler wandering into frame to the awkward technical glitches, 'Goodnight Zoom' offers a lighthearted reprieve from the virtual fatigue. Each page is a relatable vignette that will resonate with anyone who has ever navigated the virtual world.

Key Features

- Over 50 side-splitting Zoom scenarios
- Vibrant illustrations that bring the parody to life
- Perfect for bedtime reading or relaxing after a long day of virtual meetings
- A nostalgic keepsake that captures the unique experience of the pandemic

Author's Statement

As the author of 'Goodnight Zoom,' I wanted to create a book that would bring joy and laughter to those navigating the challenges of the pandemic. Drawing inspiration from my own experiences and those of countless others, I crafted a series of stories that highlight the humor and absurdity of our Zoom-filled lives.

My hope is that this book will provide a much-needed escape, a reminder that even in the most challenging of times, we can find moments of laughter and connection.
