Excerpt from the book

Gaines and his team arrived at the scene of the bombing. The street was in chaos. People were screaming and running. Cars were on fire.

Gaines and his team made their way through the crowd. They reached the building that had been bombed. The building was on fire and smoke was billowing out of the windows.

Gaines and his team entered the building. They made their way through the smoke and flames. They reached the room where the bomb had exploded.

The room was a mess. There were bodies everywhere. Gaines and his team searched the room for survivors.

They found one survivor. It was a young girl. She was badly injured. Gaines and his team took her to the hospital.

The girl was later identified as the daughter of the President of the United States. Gaines and his team had saved the President's daughter from certain death.
