In her new book, Kaleidoscopes And Quilts An Artist Journey Continues, author and artist

Sandra Sider shares her passion for two of her favorite art forms: kaleidoscopes and quilts. Sider has been creating kaleidoscopes for over 20 years, and her work has been featured in numerous exhibitions and publications. She is also an accomplished quilter, and her quilts have won awards at national and international quilt shows.

In Kaleidoscopes And Quilts An Artist Journey Continues, Sider takes readers on a journey through her creative process. She shares her inspiration for her work, her techniques for creating kaleidoscopes and quilts, and her thoughts on the relationship between art and life.

The book is beautifully illustrated with over 100 full-color photographs of Sider's kaleidoscopes and quilts. These images provide a stunning visual record of Sider's artistic journey.

Kaleidoscopes And Quilts An Artist Journey Continues is a must-read for anyone interested in kaleidoscopes, quilts, or art in general. Sider's passion for her work is evident on every page, and her insights into the creative process are invaluable.
