At the heart of the story lies the mysterious death of Richard Warwick, a wealthy philanthropist and pillar of the community. As the investigation unfolds, a cache of poisonous letters is discovered, revealing a shocking truth: Warwick was despised by many of those closest to him.

Enter DS Sadie Miller, a complex and determined detective burdened by her own demons. Sadie's relentless pursuit of the truth leads her down a treacherous path, where loyalties are tested, and appearances are deceiving.

One by one, the suspects are introduced: a bitter ex-wife, a greedy business partner, and a long-lost daughter harboring a deep-seated grudge. As Sadie delves deeper into the lives of these individuals, she uncovers a labyrinth of hidden connections, rivalries, and secrets that threaten to derail her investigation.

"The Appeal" is a masterful blend of psychological suspense and gripping courtroom drama. Hallett skillfully employs an innovative narrative style, incorporating transcripts, emails, and social media posts to create an immersive and utterly authentic experience for the reader.
