Mueller's career in public service began in the Vietnam War, where he served as a Marine Corps officer. After the war, he joined the Department of Justice, where he quickly rose through the ranks. In 2001, he was appointed Director of the FBI by President George W. Bush.

Mueller served as FBI Director for 12 years, during which time he oversaw the investigation into the 9/11 terrorist attacks and the subsequent War on Terror. He also led the FBI's efforts to combat organized crime and cybercrime.

In 2017, Mueller was appointed Special Counsel to investigate Russian interference in the 2016 election. The Mueller Report, which was released in 2019, found that Russia had interfered in the election in a "sweeping and systematic" manner. The report also found that Trump campaign officials had made numerous contacts with Russian officials during the campaign, and that some of those contacts may have been part of a criminal conspiracy.

The Mueller Report was a bombshell, and it has had a profound impact on American politics. The report has led to the impeachment of President Trump, and it has also sparked a national debate about the future of democracy in America.

Robert Mueller is a true American hero. He is a man of integrity, honor, and courage. He has served his country with distinction for over 50 years, and he has always put the interests of the nation first. We are all indebted to him for his service.
