“Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty! Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee; Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and Mighty, God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!”

Irish poet Eleanor Farjeon penned "Be Thou My Vision" as a longing for a deeper relationship with Christ. The hymn's exquisite language paints a vivid picture of the soul's desire for God's presence and guidance:

“Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; Naught be all else to me, save that Thou art; Thou my best thought, by day or by night, Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.”

Written by Horatio Spafford in the aftermath of a tragic ship disaster, "It Is Well with My Soul" is a testament to the unwavering faith that can sustain us through life's storms. The hymn's lyrics capture the essence of surrender and trust in God, no matter the circumstances:
